

Grandpa: WimbleBerry FeatherStone

Synopsis:

A boy is coming home from class. He opens the door to his house. Meanwhile, in a dark and mysterious place an old English hunter is trying to capture a Lion. The hunter placed some bait on top of a trap. He waits patiently as the Lion sniffs it. The Lion gingerly walks around the bait surveying the situation. He steps on the trap and is swung into the air by a net. The old hunter stands up excited and behind him a door opens. The boy flips on the light switch and yells for his mom, "Mom, grandpa has done it again!" Instead of capturing a Lion the old senile man has captured his wife, the boy's grandmother.
